What Is Going On Tonight.

Motion Pictures at Breed Theatre. Vaudeville and Motion Pictures avis Theatre.

The patrons of this popular playhouse will have a chance to see the Girls from Happyland in a complete change of program Wednesday and Thursday, when they will offer the big scenic production. they will offer the big scenic production. Snowbound, an entirely different musical comedy than presented the first two days. There is a pretty story running through the entire bill and plenty of good clean comedy. The company is headed by Debby Thoraton, the Dresden prima depina, and Happy Harry Moore, comedian, who is no stranger to Norwich theatregoers, and with a Simonds and Little Babe Miller, the cyclone dancer and sorbrette. Daise Mosher in popular hits and Sid Stewart the man with the fid. It is combined to the production entitled His House in Order.

The story relates the troubled advantures that befell a vivacious English girl who entered the home of a member of parliament as a governess and afterward became his second wife. The discovery worked out in an entertaining manner, Paramount Screen Magazine completes the show. Complete changes of program Wednesday and Friday.

Suds, Mary Pickford's latest production for United Artists, which will be seen at the Breed theatre today, might well be termed The Tale of a Shirt, for the somes are all laid in a little laundry in the slains of London, and Miss Pickford, as Amanda Afflick, weaves such a romance about the shirt which has been left by a casual customer that even her girl chums believe almost as much as herself.

Having preached the philosophy of gladness in Pollyanna, Mary Pickford in Suds teaches the advantages and consola-tion of a vivid imagination, and when Lavender, the delivery horse, is about to his sold for give, she rescues him, takes him up two flights of stairs to her room and tells him such wonderful tales that even this poor old animal believes it. But with all Amanda Afflick is a little figure true to life and with Miss Pickford's deft touches she brings the audience back from laughter to tears, and back again with her wonderful tales to the tragic termination of her ror
